

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Midnight Moon: A Summer Vernissage

Featuring works by:

Marta Abbott, Cristina Botero, Annika Connor, Kim Harty, Huber.Huber, & Nicholas Papadakis

Reception July 24, 2010

7 pm- Midnight

13 Cormorant Drive, Southampton, NY

Please join us on Saturday, July 24th for the opening reception of Midnight Moon: A Summer Vernissage. The works on display are an intriguing selection from the upcoming Point Suite Art Book with additional works by invited artists. This exhibition explores the fascinating and romantic allure of the Moon, as well as the dark elements associated with lunar waxing and waning.

Midnight Moon examines our relationship to light through the lens of a dreamscape.

Delving into the nature of radiance and lunar transience, the evening will be an investigation of abstraction and legend through various media.

This year's Hampton summer show will feature paintings by Annika Connor, photographs by Cristina Botero, prints by Marta Abbott, gilded pigment on panel by Nicholas Papadakis, a light installation by Kim Harty, collage by Huber.Huber, and piano music by Marina Boldyreva.

Hosted by Peter Felfe in his Southampton home, live music, light fare, and champagne cocktails will accompany this elegant evening.

Included in Midnight Moon is a sampling of art works by some of the artists featured in the upcoming the Point Suite Art Book. Organized by Active Ideas Productions, the Point Suite Art Book (due out in the coming Fall/Winter) showcases the work of 40 emerging artists and informs the public about their art. The Point Suite Art Book is a non-for profit project as well as an artist run endeavor. Fifty percent of the art sold by the Point Suite Artists will be donated to help fund the printing costs of this book.

Active Ideas Productions is run by Annika Connor and is an emerging corporation whose mission is to serve the artistic community by facilitating the presence and publication of young talented artists and educating the community about their work.
